THE OLD BRASS SPITTOON

The Old Brass Spittoon has been awarded to the winner of the Indiana-Michigan State football game since the trophy's inception in 1950.

The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and student council at MSU and was quickly accepted by the IU Student Senate.

The spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be over 200 years old. Legend holds that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded (IU - 1820, MSU - 1855).

Indiana and Michigan State have faced each other since 1922 and the trophy became a part of the series 28 years after the first meeting.

The Hoosiers blanked the Spartans, 24-0, in East Lansing last season.

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET

The symbol of football supremacy between Indiana and Purdue, the Old Oaken Bucket has become one of the nation's most recognized and famed trophies in its 96 years of spirited rivalry.

Both institutions had been meeting on the football field since 1891 when the Indiana and Purdue Alumni Clubs of Chicago held a joint meeting in 1925 to "discuss the possibility of undertaking a worthy joint enterprise on behalf of the two schools." Dr. Clarence Jones proposed the creation of a traditional football trophy to go to the winner of the annual clash. Dr. Jones and Russel Gray of Purdue were appointed to recommend a suitable trophy by J. Frank Lindsey, (Indiana, class of 1913), who was elected chairman of the joint committee.

At a later meeting they recommended "an old oaken bucket as the most typical Hoosier form of trophy, that the bucket should be taken from some well in Indiana, and that a chain to be made of bronze block 'I' and 'P' letters should be provided for the bucket. The school winning the traditional football game each year should have possession of the 'Old Oaken Bucket' until the next game and should attach the block letter representing the winning school to the bail with the score engraved on the latter link."

Fritz Ernst of Purdue and Indiana's Wiley J. Huddle were given the task of finding the bucket. They located it on the old Bruner Farm between Kent and Hanover in Southern Indiana. The region had been settled by the Bruner family in the 1840s, making today's bucket around 180 years of age.

Excellent repair work put the bucket, moss and mold-covered with some staves showing signs of decay, into good shape for its initial appearance, which ended in a 0-0 tie in 1925 in Bloomington.

GOVERNOR'S CUP

The rivalry between Indiana and Purdue continues with the 2020-21 Governor's Cup. The overall winner of the contest is awarded a trophy at the end of the season. The Hoosiers lead the all-sports competition between the two schools, 11-7-2. Each sport can earn one point toward the overall championship. A total of 20 points can be won. The winner of regular season head-to-head competition earns the point for its institution. Should the teams split or tie in regular season competition the point is split between the two institutions. If the two institutions do not compete in a head-to-head regular season competition, the team that places higher at the Big Ten Championships will be awarded the point.

BOWL HISTORY

1968 ROSE BOWL

JANUARY 1, 1968 • PASADENA, CALIF.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 14 INDIANA 3

On Nov. 25, 1967, Indiana University improved its record to 9-1 with a 19-14 upset win over Purdue in the regular-season finale. The win clinched the Big Ten title and secured the Hoosiers' initial postseason bid - a trip to the Rose Bowl and a tilt against top-ranked and O.J. Simpson-led Southern California. Remarkably, just one season earlier in 1966, Indiana had finished the season with a 1-8-1 record.

IU's only Rose Bowl appearance would not be an easy task for the Hoosiers. However, 102,946 fans watched intently as Indiana would give the Trojans everything they could handle for four quarters.

USC tallied first when All-America running back Simpson (25-128-2TDs rushing) scored on a 2-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to cap an 84-yard scoring drive. Indiana would answer just one quarter later. The Hoosiers had a first-and-goal inside the Southern California 10-yard line but could not score a touchdown. However, Indiana kicker David Kornowa did connect on a 27-yard field goal attempt that pulled the Hoosiers to within 7-3, a lead that USC would take into the locker room at halftime.

In the third quarter, the Trojans put together their final scoring drive of the day. This time it was a 45-yard drive capped by an eight-yard touchdown run by Simpson. The "Cardiac Kids," a nickname that IU had been given because of several exciting comebacks throughout the 1967 campaign, would threaten one more time but could not close the gap. IU moved to the USC 37-yard line midway through the fourth stanza but failed on two chances to gain a first down with just inches to go.

1979 HOLIDAY BOWL

DECEMBER 21, 1979 • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

INDIANA 38
BRIGHAM YOUNG 37

Many people described it as the most exciting game of the 1979 bowl season. The two squads would combine to score 75 total points in addition to tallying 52 first downs and 874 yards of total offense. However, after eight lead changes, Indiana stood victorious, 38-37, over the previously unbeaten Cougars.

Having finished the 1979 regular season with a 7-4 record, Indiana looked to gain its initial bowl victory when it faced off against the Cougars. It was a tight battle throughout as Brigham Young quarterback Marc Wilson completed 28-of-43 passes for 380 yards and 2 TDs. Throughout the game, he showed many reasons why he led the nation in passing and total offense during the regular season. However, IU found a way to answer every BYU score.

The Cougars would take a 24-21 lead early in the third quarter, but IU tallied right back when running back Mike Harkrader (24-71-1TD rushing) scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 28-24 lead. Indiana kicker Kevin Kellogg would then connect on a 26-yard field goal to increase the IU lead to 31-24. However, a 29-yard field goal by BYU and a 15-yard touchdown strike from Wilson to fullback Eric Lane, put the Cougars in front, 34-31, at the end of three quarters.

The fourth quarter did not lack for theatrics. BYU would score the quarter's first points to increase its lead to 37-31. However, Indiana's Tim Wilbur countered with a 62-yard punt return to tie the game at 37-37. Kellogg would add the extra point to give IU a one-point advantage with 6:53 remaining in the contest. Brigham Young had the opportunity to win the contest on a field goal attempt with just 11 seconds remaining. However, a 27-yard effort by Cougar kicker Brent Johnson failed, and IU held on for the thrilling 38-37 victory.

BOWL HISTORY

1986 ALL-AMERICAN BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 1986 • BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

FLORIDA STATE 27 INDIANA 13

Although he finished with an 0-11 record during his first campaign at Indiana in 1984, it would take Bill Mallory just three seasons to lead the Hoosiers to their first bowl appearance under his direction. Indiana finished with a 6-5 regular-season record in 1986 and capped its season by playing a talented Florida State team in the 1986 All-American Bowl on New Year's Eve in Birmingham, Ala.

Despite losing 27-13, the Hoosiers would go on to make bowl appearances following four of the next five seasons.

Florida State used four time-consuming scoring drives that averaged 66 yards each to capture the 10th annual All-American Bowl. IU penetrated inside the Seminole 35-yard line four times without a score.

Indiana would tally first as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 35-yard field goal to give the Hoosiers a 3-0 lead. However, Florida State running back Sammie Smith (25-205-2TDs) scored on runs of four and nine yards in the first and second quarters, respectively, to give the Seminoles a 13-3 halftime lead.

The Seminoles would score another touchdown during the third quarter that would essentially clinch the victory. IU did close the gap to within 20-13 in the fourth quarter, but FSU iced the game with a 68-yard scoring drive.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson, who was playing in his first bowl game, finished with 127 rushing yards on 28 carries and quarterback Dave Kramme threw for 168 yards. IU dominated the time of possession and totaled more first downs (23-20) and total yards (383-342) than Florida State. However, the Seminoles rushed for 288 yards and were forced into third-down situations on just three occasions during the entire game.

BOWL HISTORY

1988 PEACH BOWL

JANUARY 2, 1988 • ATLANTA, GA.

TENNESSEE 27 INDIANA 22

Tennessee drove 40 yards in nine plays and scored on a 9-yard touchdown run by running back Reggie Cobb with just 1:52 remaining in the game to clinch a 27-22 victory over Indiana in the 20th Peach Bowl. The game, which was played on Jan. 2, 1988, at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, was witnessed by 58,737 fans. Despite the disappointing loss, IU finished the season with an 8-4 record, which included wins over Michigan and Ohio State.

The Volunteers jumped to a quick 21-3 second-quarter lead. That same stanza, UT blocked an Indiana punt on the IU 9-yard line that gave the Volunteers an opportunity to put the game out of reach. However, IU forced a fumble and drove 91 yards for a touchdown, a 43-yard pass play from quarterback Dave Schnell (33-18-218-1TD-2INTs) to wide receiver Ernie Jones (7-150-1TD). The score narrowed IU's deficit to 21-10 prior to halftime.

The lone score of the third period was a 12-yard run by running back Anthony Thompson (18-67-1TD) that moved Indiana to within 21-16, however, the two-point conversion failed. In the fourth quarter, Indiana scored on a fake field goal attempt when tight end Tim Jorden ran 12 yards for a score that gave IU a one-point lead, 22-21. The two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful. Tennessee, which had come from behind on four other occasions during the 1987 campaign would turn the trick again as Cobb scored his second touchdown of the game, this one a 9-yard run, to give Tennessee the 27-22 victory.

Tennessee gained 474 yards of total offense, including 146 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Cobb, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. However, Jones was just as impressive, as he finished with 246 all-purpose yards (150 receiving, 15 rushing, 81 kickoff returns). Indiana linebacker Van Waiters was recognized as the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player.

1988 LIBERTY BOWL

DECEMBER 28, 1988 • MEMPHIS, TENN.

INDIANA 34 SOUTH CAROLINA 10

After finishing the regular season with a 7-3-1 record and a 5-3 mark in the Big Ten, Indiana earned a post-season berth for the third consecutive year and played South Carolina in the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The Hoosiers dominated the game and cruised to a 34-10 victory before 39,210 fans.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson (26-140-2TDs) began the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, and the Hoosiers would add 10 more second-quarter points to take a 17-0 halftime lead. The Gamecocks would close the gap to 17-7 in the third quarter when they scored on a 34-yard return of a blocked punt. The two teams would then trade third-quarter field goals and the fourth quarter began with Indiana leading, 20-10.

Although Indiana dominated throughout, the game-breaking play occurred on the first snap of the fourth quarter when Indiana quarterback Dave Schnell (31-16-378-2TDs-1INT) hooked up with wide receiver Rob Turner (5-182-1TD) on an 88-yard touchdown pass that upped IU's lead to 27-10. Thompson would cap the scoring with an 8-yard touchdown run later that quarter that earned him a tie for the Big Ten single-season touchdown record with 26 scores.

Indiana set a Liberty Bowl record with 575 yards of total offense. South Carolina, on the other hand, could muster only 153 total yards, including just 23 yards rushing. The IU defense intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble to go along with six quarterback sacks.

Schnell was the game's Offensive Most Valuable Player, Huff was the Defensive Most Valuable Player and wide receiver Tony Buford caught three passes for 100 yards.

BOWL HISTORY

1990 PEACH BOWL

DECEMBER 30, 1990 • ATLANTA, GA.

AUBURN 27
INDIANA 23

Indiana finished with a 6-4-1 regular-season record in 1990, a mark good enough to earn the Hoosiers a berth in the Peach Bowl for a date with the Auburn Tigers. The game, which was played at Fulton County Stadium in Atlanta on Dec. 30, 1990, was one of the best games played during the 1990 bowl season.

Auburn led Indiana 17-10 at half-time and increased its lead to 20-10 on a 43-yard field goal during the third quarter, but the Hoosiers returned the favor as quarterback Trent Green scored on touchdown runs of two and 11 yards to give IU a 23-20 lead.

However, Auburn quarterback Stan White (48-31-351-1TD passing and 2 TD runs) would direct the Tigers on a 13-play, 72-yard, 1:40-minute, scoring drive. He capped the drive himself when he scored on a 1-yard run with just 39 seconds remaining in the game. The touchdown gave Auburn a 27-23 victory.

Auburn dominated the game statistically, as the Tigers tallied 440 total yards to IU's 220. However, Indiana utilized a solid kicking game to keep the game close. Trent Green tied a Peach Bowl record with his three rushing touchdowns while running back Vaughn Dunbar (21-81) and free safety Mike Dumas (14 tackles, 4 passes broken up) earned offensive and defensive Most Valuable Player honors, respectively.

1991 COPPER BOWL DECEMBER 31, 1991 • TUCSON, ARIZ.

INDIANA 24 BAYLOR 0

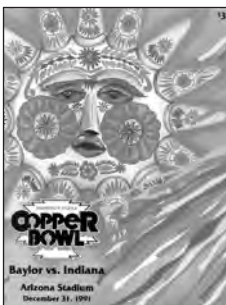

In one of the most impressive performances by any team during the 1991 bowl season, Indiana dominated a highly-regarded Baylor team in the Copper Bowl, 24-0.

Indiana wasted little time getting started as it jumped to a 17-0 halftime lead and was never threatened on its way to winning its second bowl game in four years.

Indiana quarterback Trent Green (21-11-165-0-0 passing, 2 rushing touchdowns) broke the Hoosiers into the scoring column when he tallied a 1-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. IU would increase its lead one quarter later when kicker Scott Bonnell connected on a 27-yard field goal attempt and running back Vaughn Dunbar (28-106-1TD rushing) scored on a 5-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 17-0 halftime advantage.

IU's only scary moment came in the third quarter when Baylor reached Indiana's 2-yard line. However, a muffed handoff resulted in a fumble that was recovered in the end zone by free safety Damon Watts and the game was, for all intents and purposes, over.

Dunbar won game Most Valuable Player honors on offense and line-backer Mark Hagen (11 tackles, including 2 tackles for loss, and 1 pass broken up) was the game's defensive MVP.

BOWL HISTORY

2007 INSIGHT BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 2007 • TEMPE, ARIZ.

OKLAHOMA STATE 49 INDIANA 33

Indiana capped off an emotional season in achieving late head coach Terry Hooppner's dream of "Playing 13," as the Hoosiers returned to a postseason bowl for the first time in 14 years at the 2007 Insight Bowl.

Oklahoma State's no-huddle offense took a strong first half lead, and it was too much for a spirited Hoosier squad to overcome in a 49-33 defeat. The Hoosiers rallied from a 35-10 half-time deficit to get within two scores on two separate occasions in the second half.

Kellen Lewis threw for 204 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the loss, tying IU great Antwaan Randle El for first place on the all-time list with 42 TD passes in his career. The sophomore quarterback also ran for 83 yards on 10 carries and scored a touchdown on the ground.

The Hoosiers drove 52 yards on 11 plays on their opening drive, taking a 3-0 lead on Austin Starr's 43-yard field goal at the 10:41 mark of the opening quarter. But OSU scored the next 28 points of the game before the Hoosiers made it 28-10 on a Marcus Thigpen 4-yard TD grab. Cowboy quarterback Zac Robinson tacked on a 1-yard run just before the half to give OSU a 25-point lead at the break.

IU struck with the first points of the second half on a Lewis 1-yard run that followed a 4th-and-8 conversion on a fake field goal pass from Lewis to Starr. The Cowboys rebutted with a TD of their own, and 16 fourth quarter points by the Hoosiers proved to not be enough to overcome the early deficit.

BOWL HISTORY

2015 NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL

DECEMBER 26, 2015 • BRONX, N.Y.

DUKE 44 INDIANA 41

Duke kicker Ross Martin kicked a 36-yard field goal in overtime that Indiana wasn't able to match to give the Blue Devils a 44-41 victory in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

The back-and-forth game featured nine lead changes and three ties. It also saw numerous offensive records set and six turnovers combined in a game where momentum seemed to be hanging in the balance throughout.

Duke quarterback Thomas Sirk scored on a 5-yard touchdown run up the middle with just 41 seconds to play in regulation to tie the game at 41-41.

The Hoosiers drove down the field in the little time they had left, setting Griffin Oakes up for a 56-yard field goal try that missed wide left at the end of regulation.

Indiana found its scoring gear midway through the second quarter and didn't slow down the rest of the game behind a career-best day by sophomore back Devine Redding, who finished with 227 yards on 35 carries.

The Hoosiers' problem was that the Blue Devils kept up, trading scores and never allowing one team to hold momentum long enough to make a game-winning stand. Sirk accounted for the majority of the damage, passing for 163 yards and a touchdown and adding another two scores and 155 yards on the ground.

Duke scored 10 unanswered points to begin the game, but after the Hoosiers responded with their first touchdown midway through the second quarter, neither team would ever lead by more than one possession.

In the Indiana locker room, head coach Kevin Wilson told his players not to dwell over one play, one call or anything particular in the loss.

He wanted to see their eyes.

He wanted to tell them to keep their heads up and stay confident.

And he already wanted them to move on.

"They battled, very resilient," Wilson said. "They don't feel very good, but at the same time, it's a tremendous group of seniors. Thy kind of left a positive landmark that we can move forward with. I'm not into any moral victory. We didn't play well enough to win."

The Indiana football team fell on a late field goal to No. 19 Utah, 26-24, in the Foster Farms Bowl.

Indiana took a 24-23 lead in the fourth quarter on a 3-yard touchdown run from Devine Redding, but the Utes connected on the field goal with just 1:24 left in the game.

Appearing in consecutive bowls for the first time since 1990-91 and for the fourth time in program history, IU posted back-to-back six-win seasons for the first time since 1993-94.

Defensively, Indiana was led by Tegray Scales, who was named the Foster Farms Bowl Defensive MVP after totaling a team-high 10 tackles to go with two sacks and three tackles for loss.

The Hoosiers started the game with a bang, as Greg Gooch forced a fumble on the opening kickoff to set IU up deep in Utah territory. Just 52 seconds into the game, quarterback Richard Lagow connected with wide receiver Mitchell Paige for a 7-yard touchdown to give Indiana a 7-0 lead with the fastest score in Foster Farms Bowl history.

Utah answered back with 17 unanswered points, taking a 17-7 lead, but the Hoosiers dominated the final minutes of the second quarter. After a Griffin Oakes 24-yard field goal, the IU defense forced its second straight three-and-out to give the offense the ball back.

On the ensuing drive, wide receiver Nick Westbrook hauled in a 36-yard score with 1:38 remaining in the half, tying the game at 17-17.

In the third quarter, the Utes hit a pair of field goals to take a six-point lead, 23-17, into the fourth quarter. The Hoosiers defense again came up huge when it mattered most, forcing a Utah fumble to set up the offense at its own 40-yard line.

IU marched down the field with an 11-play, 60-yard drive that finished with Redding's 3-yard score to give Indiana a 24-23 lead with 10:10 left.

The Hoosiers reached the Utah 47-yard line with five seconds remaining, but a desperation heave from Lagow was tipped at the line.

Defensively, Indiana had a season-high four takeaways along with a season-best five sacks.

BOWL HISTORY

2020 TAXSLAYER GATOR BOWL

JANUARY 2, 2020 • JACKSONVILLE, FLA.

TENNESSEE 23 INDIANA 22

Victory was there. History was within reach. Just take it.

Everything that Indiana wanted for its football program -- the first bowl victory since 1991, a nine-win season -- was there Thursday night in Jacksonville, Fla. And then it wasn't.

The final TaxSlayer Gator Bowl score -- Tennessee 23, Indiana 22.

The Volunteers (8-5) scored 14 points in 31 seconds late in the fourth quarter, nine in the other 59 minutes and 29 seconds. It was enough for their sixth-straight victory.

Peyton Ramsey rushed 17 times for 54 yards and a touchdown. He completed 20-of-34 passes for 227 yards.

Tight end Peyton Hendershot caught six passes for 67 yards despite a banged-up shoulder. Nick Westbrook caught four for 48.

A young defense made plays -- highlighted by husky Jamar Johnson's 63-yard pick-6.

For most of the first half, IU had no offense. Ramsey was under constant pressure, and the running game was ineffective. Fortunately for the Hoosiers, the defense was in major bend-don't-break mode.

Finally, it broke through with linebacker Micah McFadden's interception, the result of fierce defensive pressure.

That gave the Hoosiers the ball in Tennessee territory, and Ramsey went to work. He converted a fourth-and-one quarterback sneak, then ran the Hoosiers inside the 10-yard line as the clock ticked under 10 seconds. That set up Logan Justus' 24-yard field goal.

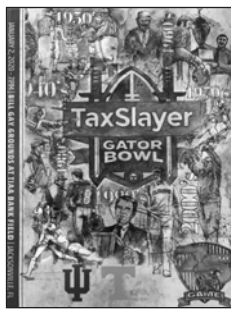

In a half dominated by Tennessee (a 202-to-69 total yard edge), IU trailed just 6-3.

The Hoosiers had the ball to start the second half for the first 5:31. Ramsey converted another quarterback sneak for a touchdown and a 10-6 Hoosier lead.

Tennessee responded with a 50-yard kickoff return to get into IU territory. Johnson wiped that out with his 63-yard return.

Back-up Tennessee quarterback Brian Maurer led Tennessee to a field goal, but IU responded with a 49-yard Justus field goal for a 19-9 Hoosier lead entering the fourth quarter.

A third Justus field goal made it 22-9 with 10:27 remaining. Indiana wouldn't score again.

BOWL HISTORY

2021 OUTBACK BOWL

JANUARY 2, 2021 • TAMPA, FLA.

OLE MISS 26 INDIANA 20

In a furious second-half comeback, IU forged a pair of gut-check, 80-yard drives totaling 27 plays and 14 points for a 20-20 tie with six minutes left.

Ole Miss (5-5) needed two minutes to score the game-winning touchdown and keep Indiana (6-2) from its first bowl win since 1991.

Quarterback Jack Tuttle played most of the game with a separated right (throwing) shoulder, the result of a series of hits. He played through it, finishing 26-for-45 for 201 yards, no touchdowns and one interception.

Receiver Whop Philyor was the busiest man in college football. He set an IU record with 18 catches for 81 yards. He also ran once for eight yards.

Ole Miss opened the scoring with a 26-yard field goal before a 50-yard Charles Campbell field goal evened things up.

The Rebels came back with another field goal and then a touchdown pass for a 13-3 lead midway through the second quarter.

Campbell opened the third quarter with that 53-yard field goal. Ole Miss responded with a touchdown for a 20-6 lead.

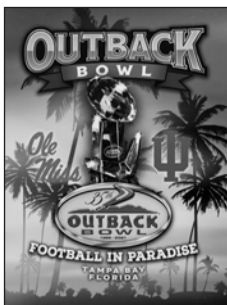

The Hoosiers went to tough-guy mode, driving behind a battered Tuttle. They got to the 3-yard line before Stevie Scott III ran out of the Wildcat for a TD to start the fourth quarter. That made it 20-13.

Indiana got the ball back after the Rebels missed a 37-yard field goal. A crucial leaping third-down catch by receiver Miles Marshall, followed by an Ole Miss pass interference call on Ty Fryfogle set up Scott's second Wildcat formation touchdown run for a 20-20 tie with six minutes left.

Scott closed out the game with 99 yards on 19 carries. His two TDs gave him his third-straight season in double digits.

"This was a season for the ages," head coach Tom Allen said in a somber aftermath. "With all we've been through, it's been so hard. Everybody has been through this.

"Our guys chose to play. This is a special group. It will lay a foundation for next year."

As a member of the Big Ten, IU enjoyed its best season in Horne's last season as head coach when the team achieved a 6-4 record in 1904.

In 1945, he led IU to its only unbeaten record (9-0-1) and garnered Man of the Year and Coach of the Year honors by the Football Writers Association and the Football Coaches Association. While at Indiana, McMillin guided IU to 10 seasons of 500 or better, including a stretch of six consecutive years. CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 1-8

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 0-6

Bob Hicks served as Indiana's interim head coach for one season prior to becoming its head line coach when Phil Dickens assumed the head coach's role. Hicks served as head coach for a season as Dickens sat out for alleged recruiting violations. A 1948 graduate of Tennessee, Hicks played on the line for UT. After five years coaching at the high school level, he received his first opportunity to coach as a member of Dickens' staff at Wyoming, where he helped build highly competitive lines for the Cowboys' powerhouse clubs. CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 31-51-2

BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 21-36-1

He accomplished that feat in 1967, when he led the Hoosiers to a 9-2 record, a Big Ten co-championship and an appearance in the Rose Bowl against eventual national champion Southern California. Perhaps more remarkable than the Hoosiers' strong showing against the national champs was the fact that this same team could only muster a 1-8-1 record the previous season, thus making the 1967 Big Ten Champions a true "rags to roses" story. Pont earned unanimous national coach of the year honors that season and was selected as head coach of the East team in the 1968 Coaches' All-American game. Pont's jersey is retired at Miami (Ohio) and in 1969 he was one of six charter members inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

While at Indiana, Corso was active with the American Football Coaches Association. He also served on the Ethics Committee, the Rules Committee and the NCAA Public Relations Seminar. During his tenure, he coached in the All-American Bowl and the Japan Bowl. Corso is currently employed by ESPN, where he works as a studio analyst on College Gameday.

He then left Indiana to become the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals. He led that squad to the 1988 AFC Championship and a Super Bowl berth against the 49ers. Wyche coached the Bengals for eight seasons before becoming the head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991. He also coached the Bucs for five seasons, worked as a color commentator on NFL broadcasts and served as the Buffalo Bills' quarterbacks coordinator.

Cameron played both football and basketball for Indiana in the early 1980s. Prior to joining the Indiana coaching ranks, he served as an assistant coach for the Washington Redskins in the NFL. Cameron brought an explosive offense to Memorial Stadium and a new look to Hoosier football. Indiana took the field with a new oval IU logo. Indiana averaged 23.6 points per game under Cameron's guidance. The Hoosiers enjoyed success as well in the classroom, as IU was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its exemplary football graduation rates in each of Cameron's final four seasons.

In just his second season at the helm of the Hoosier program, Hoeppner brought the Hoosiers on the brink of a bowl appearance in 2006. He led the youngest

BILL LYNCH • 2007-2010 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 19-30 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 6-26

Bill Lynch served at the helm of the Indiana football program from 2007-10. Lynch led the Hoosiers to a 7-6 record and a trip to the Insight Bowl in his first season. He became the only head coach in Hoosier history to guide a team to a bowl game in his debut season. Lynch led Indiana to its most wins since 1993, its first bowl appearance since that same season, and its first Old Oaken Bucket victory since 2001. The team's seven victories were the second most for a first-year Indiana head coach, behind only James M. Sheldon, who went 8-1-1 in 1905. IU boasted three All-Americans, three second-round NFL Draft picks, seven overall NFL Draft picks, 10 All-Big Ten selections, one Academic All-American and 74 Academic All-Big Ten honorees in his four seasons. Lynch also went 2-2 in four Old Oaken Bucket games.

KEVIN WILSON • 2011-16 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 26-47 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 12-37

Chargers in 2017) and Coleman (73rd pick by Atlanta in 2015). Fifty Hoosiers earned All-Big Ten honors, highlighted by a school record 12 in 2015 and 2016. ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

SCOTT DOLSON - Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

IU alumnus Scott Dolson is in his second year as IU's Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics. The native of Michigan City, Ind., began his role at the helm of IU Athletics July 1, 2020, after spending the previous 11 years as the department's Deputy Director of Athletics and chief operating officer.

In his first year, Dolson helped IU Athletics enjoy one of its most successful seasons both on and off the field. This happened while IU Athletics was also navigating one of the most challenging times in the department's history due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Academically, IU's student-athletes set records across the board in 2020-21. A school-record 330 students earned Academic All-Big Ten honors, as IU set records during the fall (114), winter (61) and spring (155) sports seasons. A school-record 105 were also named Big Ten Distinguished Scholars (3.7 GPA and above), and IU student-athletes earned a cumulative 3.27 GPA in 2020-21. IU also earned a 91 percent Graduation Success Rate score from the NCAA, marking the eighth straight year IU Athletics has either established a new record or equaled its previous record score.

Athletically, IU excelled on the Big Ten, NCAA and international levels. Seven Hoosier programs finished first or second in the Big Ten, a total that has been eclipsed only once in the last 30 years. Men's Soccer followed up its third straight Big Ten regular and postseason championship double with a run to the NCAA Championship match, while Men's Swimming and Diving placed sixth at NAAs for its eighth top-10 finish at nationals in the last nine years.

Football and Women's Basketball, meanwhile, enjoyed historically great seasons. National and Big Ten Football Coach of the Year Tom Allen's team spent six weeks ranked in the top 10, marking the first time in 51 years the program has reached that level. The Hoosiers defeated Michigan, Michigan State, Penn State and Wisconsin on their way to a 6-2 season and a second-straight January bowl appearance. Women's Basketball, meanwhile, earned its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament's Elite Eight, cracked the top-10 for the first time ever, and established a program record with 16 Big Ten wins. At season's end, Dolson rewarded Allen as well as IU Women's Basketball Coach Teri Moren with new contracts, ensuring both will remain in Bloomington to continue to lead their respective programs for the foreseeable future.

IU Athletics also made its presence felt on an international level. Fifteen current or former IU student-athletes earned spots in the Summer Olympics in Tokyo, including current IU student-athletes Michael Brinegar (swimming), Tomer Frankel (swimming), Andrew Capobianco (diving) and Gabi Rennie (women's soccer). The contingent of current and former IU student-athletes will represent a total of six countries. In addition, IU diving coach Drew Johansen served as the head diving coach for Team USA for the third straight time, while swimming coach Ray Loewe was an assistant coach for the second straight Olympic.

While IU's student-athletes and teams excelled on the highest levels, the IU Athletics Department played a pivotal role during the 2021 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship, which was played in its entirety in the state of Indiana. Indiana University's Simon Skjold Assembly Hall hosted six games during the tournament's opening weekend, marking the first time in 40 years at Indiana University hosted NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament games.

During Dolson's first year, IU Athletics has also been a leader in the rapidly-developing Name, Image and Likeness arena. Less than two months after assuming his new role, Dolson announced the creation of the IU Athletics Name, Image and Likeness Task Force to guide the department's NIL efforts. IU has established partnerships with industry leaders Openstore and Altius Sports Partners, as well as the IU Kelley School of Business and The Media School, to support the department's ongoing and comprehensive efforts to educate and support its student-athletes. When the new NIL rules went into effect July 1, 2021, more than 95 percent of IU's student-athletes had already been onboarded onto the Openstore platform, showing IU Athletics' commitment to supporting its student-athletes' opportunity to take advantage of the new intercollegiate athletics landscape. IU Athletics was also among the first department's to formally create and announce a department-wide Name, Image and Likeness Policy to guide its NIL efforts.

The last year has also featured extensive efforts and initiatives to support the well-being of all members of the Indiana University Athletics family. In the fall of 2020, IU Athletics created the IU Athletics Mental Health Task Force as well as the Anti-Hate and Anti-Racism Coalition. Under the Mental Health Task Force's leadership, IU has introduced extensive programming through the Excellence Academy to increase awareness, maintain a healthy culture, provide resources, and develop key programming to support student-athletes, coaches and staff. The Anti-Hate and Anti-Racism Coalition, meanwhile, has been active in developing opportunities for student-athletes and staff to engage in diversity and inclusivity programming. In addition to mandatory annual in-person inclusivity training for all staff and students, programming opportunities have included a staff-wide conversation with former Indianapolis Colts head coach Tony Dungy as part of IU Athletics' Martin Luther King Jr. Day events; an educational social media campaign highlighting historical facts on former African-American student-athletes at Indiana University; and the creation of new annual award to honor one female and one male student-athlete for their efforts in the areas of diversity and inclusion.

Dolson's first year also included the creation of the Women's Excellence Initiative, designed to generate financial and human resources to enhance IU's female student-athlete experience and propel the women's athletics programs. To help direct these efforts, the IU Athletics Women's Excellence Committee was created under the Varsity Club National Board of Directors, a group that includes, among others, former Indiana University First Lady Laurie Burns McRobbie, IU Board of Trustees member Donna Spears, Indianapolis Colts' Vice Chair and Owner Kalen Jackson, and co-founder and Board Chair of the Samaritan Foundation Cindy Simon Skjold. Before the initiative was even publicly announced, the original 12-18 month fundraising goal of $1 million was eclipsed.

These successes were accomplished against the backdrop of the COVID-19 pandemic. IU Athletics was not only a leader in establishing safety protocols to protect the health of its student-athletes, staff, and spectators with its COVID practices and procedures, but it was also a key partner in the Indiana University and Bloomington communities' efforts to combat the virus. IU Athletics has collaborated with campus partners to utilize IU Athletics facilities to administer COVID tests and vaccines throughout the 2020-21 academic year. From Aug. 9-Nov. 19, 2020, 89,770 COVID tests were administered on IU Athletics facilities, and to date more than 40,000 vaccine doses have been administered on the IU Athletics campus.

Dolson's first year also included significant efforts to minimize the financial ramifications caused by the pandemic. In addition to a previously-announced $11.1M budget cut for the department shortly after the onset of the pandemic, IU Athletics pursued additional cost-cutting measures that ultimately resulted in a total expense reduction of nearly $25M during the 2021 fiscal year.

Dolson was appointed to his role as the leader of IU Athletics by former IU President Michael A. McRobbie. In assuming the role, Dolson has remained committed to and anchored by the five priorities put in place by his predecessor, Fred Glass.

1. Playing by the rules;
2. Being well in mind, body and spirit;
3. Achieving academically;
4. Excelling athletically; and
5. Integrating with the University.

In his previous role as Deputy Director of Athletics under Glass, Dolson was instrumental in helping IU Athletics establish records for both athletic and academic success, including graduating students at unprecedented rates; make historic investments in facilities; deliver unprecedented fundraising dollars; and establish nationally recognized programs and policies focused on holistic student development and welfare.

Dolson helped oversee strategic planning of all facility projects and renovations, ensuring the successful completion of the university's Bicentennial Facilities Master Plan for IU Athletics, which includes over $150 million in facility construction and renovations. In recent years, these projects have included the North End Zone Student-Athlete Development Center, the Henke Hall of Champions, the D. Ames Shuel Academic Center, Bart Kaufman Field, the Andy Mohr Softball Field, the Cook Hall basketball practice facility, the renovated Simon Skjold Assembly Hall, the enclosure of the South End Zone of Memorial Stadium, which is home to the Excellence Academy, and Wilkinson Hall, IU's new home for its volleyball and wrestling teams. These projects also include the new IU Athletics golf course, The Plau Course at Indiana University, and the soon-to-be-completed renovations to Armstrong Stadium, home to IU's men's soccer team, winners of eight NCAA championships.

Under Dolson's stewardship, the athletics department renegotiated a new, 10-year multimedia rights agreement with Learfield Sports, and it has dramatically increased student and general attendance at both football and men's basketball games. Recent years have seen IU football achieve record attendance and increase public season ticket sales. In men's basketball, IU continues to sell more student season tickets than any other program in the country and regularly ranks among the nation's leaders in attendance.

In addition to his role as deputy director of intercollegiate athletics, Dolson maintained his leadership as the fourth director of the Varsity Club. As director, he managed the athletic department's overall fundraising program for scholarships, annual giving, endowments and athletic facilities.

The Michigan City, Indiana, native graduated from IU with a bachelor's degree in management from the Paul H. O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs. While doing his undergraduate work, Dolson was a student manager for the IU men's basketball team for four seasons, serving as the program's head manager in 1988. Following graduation in 1988, he worked for Tim Knight Enterprises before joining the joining the Varsity Club staff in December 1989.

Dolson and his wife, Heidi, have five children: Luke, Sam and Zach Wisen, and Kristen and Nick Dolson.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

PAMELA WHITTEN - Indiana University's 19th President

Pamela Whitten became the 19th president of Indiana University on July 1, 2021.

A visionary scholar and accomplished educator and researcher, Whitten has held a variety of leadership roles, beginning at Michigan State University where she served as a dean for five years, and most recently as president of Kennesaw State University.

As IU's first female president, Whitten assumes the helm at one of the nation's leading research universities at a time of record-level research funding and philanthropic support.

"Pamela has distinguished herself as a passionate and accessible leader," IU board of trustee chair Michael Mirro said. "Her student-centered approach and proven ability to harness diverse talent and secure vital resources will help IU continue on its strong trajectory."

Whitten holds a Ph.D. in communication studies from the University of Kansas, a Master of Arts in communication from the University of Kentucky and a Bachelor of Science in management from Tulane University. She is an internationally recognized expert in the field of telemedicine. As part of her work in higher education, she additionally held leadership roles at the University of Georgia and the University of Kansas Medical Center.

"Indiana University is one of our nation's finest public research universities, with a rich history, wonderful traditions and a worldwide reputation for excellence," Whitten said. "This is an especially exciting time as IU builds upon its 200 years of success, strengthening its mission of delivering outstanding education and innovative research. I'm deeply honored to be selected to lead this great university, and I look forward to working with the exceptional faculty, staff, students, alumni and friends of IU to seize the opportunities and challenges ahead, creating a better future for all of those we serve."

Whitten was appointed by the board of trustees following an extensive search. Faculty, staff and students across the university provided early input regarding the characteristics and experiences most desired in IU's next leader.

"Pamela emerged as a clear choice among a strong group of candidates," said Melanie Walker, trustee and search committee chair. "She is an engaging and collaborative leader who will bring focused passion to the presidential role."

Rick Van Kooten, executive dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at IU Bloomington, advised on the search and was impressed with Whitten's commitment to faculty engagement.

"Beyond academic accomplishments alone, she has a strong history of creative initiatives and working with faculty to advance their interests, including both research and teaching," he said.
